as well as a backyard. The outdoor entertaining area is in a perfect position to capitalize on both on those special occasions. The solar system and the water tank are there to help you save and the property is on a family friendly court.

Although this property has everything a family could ever need, the best thing is the location. Within a 3-minute drive is the Bellavista Shopping Precinct which caters for all the local necessities and anything else shopping related can be taken care of at the Caloundra Shopping Centre or the CBD which are only 12 minutes away. There are also several walking tracks in the suburb and Unity College provides fantastic schooling only a short walk away.

If you can see yourself entertaining friends and family in a beautiful home with your own pool or bringing up kids in a family friendly suburb with all the amenities you could need, then you will have to check this one out for yourself. Inspect this home, you'll be glad you did.
