all features of note.

The low maintenance garden is well established with lots of grassy space for children and pets to play - there's plenty of room to put in a pool, if desired. There will be nothing more relaxing than kicking back on the patio with a cold beer or chilled glass of wine after a day in the office, likewise, weekend BBQ's after a morning at the beach, will be a regular occurrence at your place!

Located within the coveted Mountain Creek School zone, and just minutes to local shops - access to education, employment, health, retail, and leisure facilities is a key-driver in the purchase decision of many buyers, and this home is conveniently located within close proximity to all of these amenities.

Buyers in the market for a family home that offers comfortable, spacious living on a decent size block in a great neighbourhood, will find 33 Glenfields Boulevard has your name on it. Properties in this area sell quickly and this will be no exception.
