air-conditioning, ceiling fans, ducted vacuum, luxury circular spa bath in ensuite, security system, generous storage, and cosy firepit in private front garden; are all features of note.

On a prime fully fenced corner block with a prized north-eastern aspect, the home is light filled and benefits from cooling breezes and excellent cross ventilation. The garden is immaculate and requires virtually zero maintenance to keep it looking so amazing. Just like the interior, the outside also shines, perfectly presented and just so inviting...

Located in a high-end Island neighbourhood just a street back from swanky waterfront homes, and within walking distance to parks and playgrounds, and Double Bay beach and dining precinct - this is a desirable place to anchor down and savour an enviable lifestyle.

With miles of cycle and walkways providing excellent connectivity in and around the Island - it is also easy to stay fit and active. Major amenities such as private and public hospitals, schools, university, shopping centres, sporting facilities, and beaches are within a 5-15 minute proximity.

Buyers in the market for an executive style contemporary home of the highest calibre in a dress circle location that truly offers easy access to an amazing suite of lifestyle amenities, will find this one is a 'stand out'.
