bathrooms, soft close cabinetry, skylight about stairs to infuse with light, plush carpet in bedrooms, timber look vinyl planking in living, LED lights, acoustic glazing to front windows, courtyard access from ground level bedroom, and generous storage.

The floor plan caters for residents of all ages and stages of life - with a double sized ensuited bedroom on the ground floor that could be utilised as a master bedroom for more elderly occupants. The walls of the stairway are reinforced to cater for a future chairlift ... yes, you can retire here in comfort and peace of mind that accessibility will not be an issue.

From the master bedroom on the upper level the view is panoramic covering the widest section of the Maroochy River (over 300 metres) and beyond to Mount Coolum and Mount Ninderry ... sparkling waters to mountain magic, this is a picturesque slice of the Sunshine Coast.

Residents and guests have access to a communal inground pool, BBQ area and grassy fields at rear and waterfront parkland opposite. Just 30 metres to the boat ramp and pontoon, bike/walking paths, bus stop, and convenience store...it is literally just footsteps from your front door. Maroochydore's major amenities such as Sunshine Plaza, SunCentral CBD, Ocean Street dining precinct, and patrolled surf beach are a 7-10 minute radius, and Sunshine Coast Airport is less than 10 minutes' drive across the nearby motorway bridge.

This is a lifestyle to embrace and a lifestyle to savour; pack the fishing rods, sunscreen, walking shoes...chill the champagne and let the good times roll.
