

4 Barnett Street, Golden Beach

A GOLDEN Classic!

This solid lowset brick and tile home, circa 1980, located just one block to the aquamarine water of the magnificent Pumicestone Passage, is filled to the brim with retro-charm from its era and has many original features along with modern comforts such as ducted air-conditioning.

Comprising three large bedrooms with built-ins, two bathrooms, original kitchen, formal lounge, separate dining, enclosed courtyard/sunroom, north-east facing side patio, separate laundry, and double lock up garage - this is the perfect size for a couple or small family, and there is room to extend (stca).

Upon entry it is a little like taking a step back in time, perhaps to when life was a little simpler, and slower - and if you remember the 80's, some of this décor is going to elicit a range of emotions, hopefully positive!

Existing features include ducted air-conditioning, generous storage, separate bath and shower in main bathroom, solar hot water, and two garden sheds; the 669m² block is flat and low maintenance with a huge backyard for children and pets to play, and heaps of room for a pool, and to park a tinnie!

There is clear potential to renovate/update to suit personal tastes - but there's no rush, as it's comfortable, functional, and very liveable 'as is'. This vintage of home is making a resurgence and people are embracing the vibe and loving the warmth; this particular property has been exceptionally well-maintained, and a shining example of its era.

Just footsteps to the foreshore, parks and playgrounds; and also walking distance to the Pelican Waters Shopping Village and Tavern, Caloundra Power Boat Club, the local kindergarten, and Golden Beach shops/cafes; plus, a two-minute drive to the Bells Creek Boat Ramp with wonderful picnic area - this is a family-friendly lifestyle location in every sense, and Caloundra CBD is just a seven-minute drive.
