colour.

The fenced courtyard is a truly delightful place to toast the good life; sit back and relax with a morning coffee, a glass of wine at 'happy hour' and make plans for the weekend in this location you are so close to everything, there is a myriad of choice at your doorstep.

Residents and their guests enjoy access to communal on-site facilities including two inground pools, BBQ areas, clubhouse and abundant greenspace. There is friendly professional on-site management and parking on-site for visitors; fellow residents are respectful of everyone's privacy, and it is a very welcoming place to live, with a mixture of university students, young families, professional couples and retirees.

Located adjacent to a child-care centre and only 500 metres to the bustling "Bottle Trees Shopping Centre" with takeaways, 24-hour gym and café, plus walking distance to the University of the Sunshine Coast, highly regarded schools such as Matthew Flinders Anglican College, Siena Catholic College and Chancellor State College; it's convenience is part of its appeal and on-going demand.

This is a fantastic opportunity whether adding to your property portfolio or entering the market for the first time!
