This home would make a fabulous, well-located investment to add to any portfolio, in one of the Sunshine Coast's most central and sought-after suburbs. Designed for easy-care living and the Sunshine Coast relaxed way of life, it is the type and style of home so popular with the modern family - spacious but low maintenance; a healthy work/life balance is high on the agenda of today's buyers, and this truly lovely home embodies those principles.

Only 450m to a dog park and just footsteps to miles of lakefront walking/cycling paths, you can keep fit and active in the sunshine just metres from your front door; hospital workers can stroll to work, and the award-winning NightQuarter entertainment precinct is a 25-minute walk. Kawana Shoppingworld, Sunshine Coast Stadium, public and private schools, and the university are within a 15-minute driving radius, and the beach less than five minutes!
