The property offers a covered outdoor living and dining area with an alfresco section, making it an ideal spot for outdoor gatherings. In addition, the double lock-up garage provides remote access and features floor-to-ceiling storage cupboards along its entire side, while still leaving ample space for vehicles and other items. This generous and rare storage capacity in the garage is a highly desirable feature of the property.

The solar-heated pool with a spa seat is perfect for relaxation, while the solar panels help to reduce electricity costs. The property also features great quality appliances, including an oven, dishwasher, fridge, washing machine, and dryer.

The electric gate access and electric deadlock on the front door provide extra security, while the large fence at the front provides extra privacy. The property also features plenty of storage space throughout the entire house, making it easy to keep everything organized.

Located in a great neighbourhood with friendly neighbours, this property is within walking distance to the Green Zebra restaurant and is close to the beach, shopping centres, and recreational facilities. The low maintenance gardens make it easy to maintain a beautiful outdoor space. A 12-month lease is preferred, and pets may be considered upon application.
