a large shed. Whatever you decide to build – you do not have to worry about overcapitalising in the desirable Buderim postcode, and with well-located acreage parcels like this such a finite resource, attractive capital gain is assured.

You can live in harmony with natural surrounds and benefit from the peace and privacy of acreage living without sacrificing quick easy access to major amenities, with premium public and private schools, beaches, river, shopping, CBD, airport, the university and hospitals all within a 5-20 minute proximity. Access to Maroochydore Road connecting you to the M1 or Sunshine Motorway is just a few minutes' drive; the location is exceptionally convenient.

Offered to the market for the first time – this will must be seriously considered by any purchasers seeking an acreage lifestyle without isolation and will also appeal to land-banking investors who will immediately recognise the potential to hold and reap rewards further down the track. The Sunshine Coast property market is only going to continue to move up and up - particularly properties in such a prime central location.
