staircase, 4x3m plunge pool, and 5kW solar power.

On a 188m<sup>2</sup> block – there is no garden maintenance, and the home itself, completed in 2022, requires minimal maintenance throughout; the lifestyle on offer is one of relaxation, celebration, and one where your free time is your own to spend how you choose! An increasing number of buyers are seeking this type of lifestyle, and as a result this type of property is soaring in demand.

Spend the morning at one of the Sunshine Coast's stunning beaches (20 minutes' drive) and then head home for an afternoon of cocktails and tunes by the pool; take the dog for a walk each day to the local dog park (900-metres) where new friends will be made both canine and human, and the children will love the fabulous parks and playgrounds that are a feature of Harmony.

From here you can not only walk to local parks, but also local schools, sporting facilities, and the future town centre. The new access road links up to the Bruce Highway, fast-tracking commuting to Brisbane, and major coast amenities including the university, public and private hospitals, and the airport are within a 12-25 minute driving radius.

Purchase today and you can start counting down to settlement and look forward to embracing the good life in this exciting, new connected community that has so much to offer its residents already and so much more to come!
