and timber flooring in living), granite bench tops, ducted split system air-conditioning, windows, ceiling fans, and 250-litre hot water tank. Everything looks truly amazing!

A child and pet-friendly flat backyard provides generous space for outdoor play, and yes there is room for a pool! Directly opposite Jack Keleher Park, the children/grandchildren can make new friends in and around the neighbourhood.

Beautifully presented the home is move-in or rent-ready with no money needing to be spent or any works to be done inside or outside. This could be the perfect home for a beach loving couple, small family, downsizer, or savvy location-driven investor who can look forward to attractive returns and strong capital growth.

With so many lifestyle and essential amenities within walking and cycling distance, plus quick easy access to the Nicklin Way connecting you north and south, eight-minutes to Caloundra CBD, 12 minutes to Sunshine Coast University Hospitals, and 65 minutes to Brisbane International Airport; the convenience is exceptional.

Battery Hill has long been a sleeping giant, and it is well and truly awake now and attracting a high volume of interest in the marketplace. Properties here are generally tightly held, and indeed this particular home has only had two owners since 1978; a testament to just how good this location really is! Act today.
