Just in time for summer, the outdoor entertaining area will be a hit with family and friends and those special occasions are made that much better by the fantastic inground pool. The side access allows you to store any trailers, boats or motorbikes securely and the reserve at the rear of the property ensures absolute privacy.

As you can see, 17 Carlisle Street has something for everyone inside and out, however, the best thing is the central location. Within a 2-minute drive lies the Bellvista Shopping Precinct which can cater for all the basics. Everything else can be taken care of 10 minutes away at the Caloundra Shopping Center, CBD and of course the beautiful beaches. The estate even boasts a myriad of walking tracks, parks and the renowned Unity College.

So, if you're looking to upgrade your family's current quarters, or like the idea of having your own pool then you owe it yourself and those in your house to check this one out.

This home represents fantastic value, arrange your inspection today.
