dual vanities in ensuite, external access from master bedroom to patio, and garden shed for extra storage.

It's been well cared for and there is no money needing to be spent in the short to medium term; just move in and embrace the easy life! Enjoy weekend BBQ's, neighbourhood drinks, Sunday brunch, a twilight Prosecco or two out under the covered patio, with a pleasant, calming outlook over the bushland at the rear.

A perfect size for a young family, downsizers, and also an attractive investment opportunity; this is the style and type of property in high demand both from buyers and tenants. Everyone is seeking a healthy work/life balance, and properties that look aesthetically pleasing, are functional and low maintenance, are snapped up quickly particularly in a location like Brightwater.

From here you can walk to the primary school, childcare centre, parks and cycle tracks, award-winning tavern on the waterfront, ALDI, cafes/takeaways, and specialty retailers. The Sunshine Coast University Hospital precinct is a 5-7 minute drive, and you can be on the sand along Kawana's pristine coastal strip in 10 minutes, Mooloolaba in 15.
